I. If there's a mercy to the coronavirus, what might it be?

II. Let's review what Peter has taught us so far about being unleashed for ministry:

A. “The end of all things is at hand.” (vs.7a)

B. “Therefore be self-controlled and sober-minded for the sake of your prayers.” (vs.7b)

C. “Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins.” (vs.8)

D. “Show hospitality to one another without grumbling.” (vs.9)

III. Verse 10 answers the question: Who should be doing the serving?

A. What Peter says here was a radical, unheard of idea. Why?

B. What's a priest?

A Spirit-anointed person called to _____ _____ God and humans.

C. And what did a priest do for people?

IV. Why did you have to go to a priest to get to God?

It had to do with human _____.

A. What so bad about this?

B. God made a way for us to come back into his presence.
What was it?

C. What changed, so that Peter could now say that each one of us should serve in ministry?

D. What happened to the priests? Where are they?

V. “But I can't preach sermons!” you might protest. What would Peter say to you?

What are some of the gifts that I have been given to use?
