

“When Life Is A Mess...Turn To The Mess-iah” * Psalm 2 * 5/24/20

I. There are several categories of psalms worth knowing:

- A. _____ psalms – that mark out what a good and godly life looks like
- B. _____ of _____ psalms – that celebrate the King that God establishes to rule
- C. _____ / _____ psalms – where the writer calls out to God to help him or her
- D. _____ / _____ psalms – where the writer wants to share a message burning inside him
- E. _____ psalms – where the writer can't help but worship God

II. A Look At Psalm 2 – What type of psalm is it? _____

A. This psalm is important for the _____ it gives.

Luke 24:44 – “Jesus said, ‘Everything written about me in the Law of Moses, and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled.’”

1. At first you think David is writing about himself. But how do we know he's describing someone greater?

2. How did the New Testament use this psalm?

B. This psalm is important for the _____ it teaches.

1. The message is this: If you love Jesus, don't expect...

2. Where do we get this message in the psalm?

III. The Two Kingdoms

A. Kingdom #1: The Kingdom of the _____ What's this?

*It's the _____, _____, _____,
and _____ created by godless people.*

B. Kingdom #2: The Kingdom of _____ What's this?

C. Why must there be all this conflict? (vs.3)

D. On one level, this rebellion is absurdity. Why? (vs.4)

E. Why do we need the message of Psalm 2 today?

IV. Three important provisos as we think about the clash of kingdoms

Proviso #1: Reel in any _____ thinking.

Proviso #2: Practice _____ with each other.

Proviso #3: Be careful not to confuse the kingdom of God with the kingdoms of _____.