I. What was the David's overarching dream and vision for his life?

Some psalms where this vision is proclaimed:

II. A vision needs a plan to work. What was David's plan?

Looking at David's life and words, we can see three primary activities that a man or woman after God's own heart will engage in:

_____ / _____ / _____

First, David saw himself called as a _____ called to _____.

A. Fighting was not an option for David. Battling is a part of ordinary life. If we just let things go, what happens?

B. What are the various battles that Christians are called upon to fight today?

Second, David saw himself called as a _____ called to _____.

A. How did David show that he had the heart of a builder?

B. What are things God calls us to build and create?

Third, David saw himself called as a _____ called to _____ God and celebrate his goodness.

A. The idea is not that we battle, then build, then bless, but...

B. Why should I bless the Lord in all times and seasons?
