How Janis and I experienced the power of worship last weekend.

Of all David's exceptional traits, his heart of worship rises above them all. How do we know this about him?

3 Key Ideas Of How David Viewed Worship

I. For David, worship means _____ God.

A. What is worship at its heart? (Hint: it's not singing.)

B. Some truths about "seeking" we learn from David:

- Seeking God happens in the _____.

- Seeking God is _____.

- Seeking God takes _____ & _____.

- Seeking God should happen _____.

II. For David, worship means _____ God.

A. True worship is not just a private pick-me-up party with God. What do we see David often doing in many of the psalms where he's talking about himself and his needs?

B. What would David say to the person who treats Sunday morning and serving in a ministry as optional?

C. True worship has both a vertical and horizontal axis. What do we mean?

III. For David, worship means _____ God.

A. When the Jews were thinking properly, what did they feel for the nations around them? (For example: Psalm 16)

B. If we love something, don't we want others to know about it?
