1 Corinthians 7: A Biblical Primer On Dating And Marriage

Paul makes several radical statements on sex and marriage here:

Truth 1 (vs.1): There is _____ than sex and marriage.

Truth 2 (vs.2): Sex and marriage _____.

Truth 3 (vs.3-4): There are right ways and wrong ways for men and women

_____.

1. What is the true sense of verse 3?

"Give to your wife the _____, the good will, the _____, the favor that you _____ her, and wives the same for your husbands."

2. Are men and women really different? How?

3. What radical thing does Paul say in verse 4? How has the Gospel brought this about?

What are some practical ways men and women can live out these verses with each other?

In our marriages:

In dating:

In our boardrooms:

Why did God do it this way? To frustrate us?
