

“Baptism: Having The Faith Of A Child”

August 10, 2015

Pastor Bear Clifton

I. What is baptism? When do we first see it in the Bible?

Baptism comes from a Greek word that literally means...

- John the Baptist _____
- Jesus and the Great Commission
- Peter’s first sermon on Day One of the Church

From this data, we can say first that baptism is an

_____.

We can also say that baptism is a _____.

A. It is a sign of the _____.

B. It is a sign of Christ’s _____ & _____.

C. It is a sign of my inclusion into the _____.

II. Thoughts On Having Childlike Faith

A. What do you think having the “faith of a child” means?

B. Childlike faith means you don’t have to _____
_____.

C. It doesn’t mean you have to have really big _____ to confess.
