I. Who is Isaiah? He is the...

- A. _____ of the Prophets.
- B. _____ of the Prophets.
- C. _____ of the Prophets.

II. To understand the great prophecy of Isaiah 7:14, we need to understand the story behind the prophecy.

- A. What’s happening at the beginning of chapter 7?
- B. Isaiah comes to King Ahaz to strengthen him in the face of these threats. What does he say to him at first?
- C. How does Ahaz respond? What does this show us about him?
- D. This then is when Isaiah issues the prophecy. Most assume he is speaking only about Jesus. But is he?

III. The Prophecy Refers To Two Children

A. Who's the first? What do chapters 7 and 8 say about him?

B. The second child clearly refers to Jesus. How so?

1. Isaiah's son did not fulfill the condition that a _____ would conceive.

2. For Isaiah's son, "God is with us" was symbolic. For Jesus, "God is with us" was _____.

Scriptures:

3. Isaiah's son was a sign of God saving us from a political enemy. Christ though saves us from our _____ enemies.

IV. What Are Some Life-Lessons To Take Away From This Prophecy?

Don't Be An _____!

A. If you believe that God is with us, then unlike Ahaz don't shake with fear at _____. (8:11-15)

B. If you believe that God is with us, then unlike Ahaz never stop trusting in the _____. (8:16-22)
