A 7-word Bible verse that gives us our life's mission and purpose:

Key Questions To Ask About Ministry

Question #1: When Should We Start Thinking About Ministry?

"The end of all things is at hand." Though this might seem dreary, why is remembering this wise?

Question #2: What Should Be My Motivation For Ministry?

What the right answer?

What other reasons might a person serve besides this one?

How is God's love different from ours?

Question #3: What Is Our Ministry Meant To Accomplish?

"Love covers a multitude of sins." – What does this mean?

So what's the purpose for our doing of good?

A good question every church should ask periodically: What difference should it make in our community that we are here?

What things ought to happen over time when a faithful church bears witness to Christ and the gospel?
