John 4:1-30

Can all religions be equally true, or do their contradictions matter?

I. A breakout of world religions from the Pew Research Center

There are two easy ways to answer the question of what we do with different religions. And then there is Jesus' way.

Easy Way #1:

Easy Way #2:

II. What can we learn about Jews and Samaritans from the story?

1. They had some _____.

2. There was _____ & _____ tension between them.

III. In his conversation with the woman, Jesus models how he wants his followers to interact with people from other faiths.

1. He wants us to be _____.

2. He wants us to be trained in _____.

3. He wants us to be able to share why his way is the _____.

IV. There are 3 questions to ask when evaluating the truth-claims of a religion or philosophy
(Source: How Now Shall We Live, Charles Colson & Nancy Pearcey)

1. _____
Where did we come from and who are we?

2. _____
What has gone wrong with the world?

3. _____
What can we do to fix it?

From what I've learned of Christ so far, how would I explain to someone why there is no one like him?
