1. The book of Daniel has two distinct parts to it. What’s unique about the second part, which begins in chapter 7?

2. In chapter 7, Daniel has a series of dreams and visions which he describes for us.
 - a. What’s the first vision about (vss.1-8)? What earlier story should it remind us of?

 - b. What’s the second act of the vision about? (vss.9-12)

 - c. What’s the next vision about? (vss.13-14)

 - d. Why are these visions given together? What similarities to the book of Revelation do we find here?

3. In the second half of chapter 7, Daniel is given an interpretation of his visions. What key lessons should we draw from these verses?

➤ Lesson 1: There is a _____ to human history.

➤ Lesson 2: God is _____.

➤ Lesson 3: God's plan for history includes _____.

4. The final verse (28) offers some insights for us as we move forward in the book to consider "eschatology" (the study of last things).
